

MOHAMED AHMED

Mohamed Amin Ahmed migrated to the United States twenty-five years ago and has played numerous roles in both civic and corporate worlds. At the onset of the 9/11 crisis, Mohamed joined the Free Muslim Coalition Against Terrorism and has since been the Chapter President for Minnesota. He is the founder of Average Mohamed (www.averagemohamed.com) an organization that passionately promotes ideas of counter terrorism through the use of popular culture. His counter terrorism mantra is: "It takes an idea, to defeat an idea". He currently is a Bush Foundation Fellow, a member of the Somali American Task Force, 2018 Citizen Diplomat of the Year and lives in Minneapolis with his wife and four children.
