

ANITA PERESIN

Anita obtained her PhD from the Faculty of Political Science of the University of Zagreb in Croatia. As an assistant professor, her research is focused on terrorism and security analysis with particular attention to women and children. Anita is also Senior Advisor in Croatia's Office of the National Security Council, holds an appointment at the George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies, has served as a guest lecturer at the NATO Center of Excellence in Ankara, and is an expert within the European Union – Radicalisation Awareness Network.

CRTG
WORKING GROUP